Seniors Last Year

"I can remember sitting on the Rookie side of the science-quad and looking over to the seniors and wondering at how long it was going to take to get at that side. But now it all seems to have gone by so fast that I hardly notice that we are almost out of school."

-Demian Scott

Momi Olivera and Mike Crowe reign as our homecoming king and queen.

Tom Naddy, Lesley Molina, and Helen Ferreira (left) run from Danroy Pana (above) to avoid being photographed, but are stopped by Denise Ledward.

The Night Our Dreams Came True

Imagine a beautiful, elegant April night under the stars at the Monarchy Ballroom in the Hotel Hyatt Regency. The night is filled with laughter, romance and fine dining by candle light. For most, this could only be a dream, but for the class of 1986, it was a REALITY.

Many of us dream of princes and princesses and they were included in the class of 1986. For Ryan Sakugawa and Denise Ledward, a different kind of dream came true, the dream of being king and queen.

The king and queen were chosen in a special way: Everyone knew who the members were because they were announced 2 months before the Prom, so they could practice their dance. The king and queen, on the other hand, were not able to have their traditional Waltz, so they did a solo of the Court dance. They were picked 2 days prior to the prom. No one knew who the king and queen were except for the prom coordinators-Mr. Stephen Nemeth and Mrs. Martha Soderholm-until it was announced the night of the prom. Everyone was held in suspense.

The Prom Court entertained the audience with their traditional court dance which was choreographed by Mrs. Judy Yamane and Brother Frank Gomes. It was beautiful!! Thanks to all who made this dream a reality.

The Dynamic Class of 1988 was big and bold with a lot of unity. They contributed their energy and cooperation through homecoming and continued throughout the year.

The Sophomores chose as their homecoming theme "Jungle Book". They showed their "wild and savage" spirit at the pep rallies which also caused them to win the tug-o-war competition. The Sophomore Class has continually shown unity in their own class, and also toward the rest of the school. The Sophomores are proving that they are a class to be reckoned with.

Fantastic Freshmen

The awesome Class of '89 chose as their 1985 Homecoming theme "Freshmen Salute Disney Movies." The class displayed their true strength in unity by showing their spirit during the pep rallies and dress up days. These students have grown from the boys and girls of Jr. High to the young men and women of our Sr. High. This class indeed shows great potential as being fine leaders in the future.

J.V. Football

"Strength in Unity." This is the motto of St. Anthony High School. Following in the footsteps of their school, the football team practices what is preached. "Big thing come in small packages;" though they are small in size, their looks can be deceiving.

The strength that comes from within also shows in the student body and family of St. Anthony. That strength is spirit which encourages the motivation of the team. Together, they are all winners in spirit.

It is this attitude of unity that contributes toward the team's spirit that will get them somewhere. This thought brings about a cheer that can be heard at many football games, and that is, "Unify, let's really try, altogether we can . . ."

Our 1985 girls volleyball team were true "don't give uppers". That's a good sign there were only 3 graduating Seniors. All the rest were Rookies. So they still are a pretty young team. Even though the girls went through winless, we are still proud of them. Thanks goes to Head-Coach Maui Phillips, Asst. Coach Curt Hamagawa, and Manager Jackie Fuentes.

SAS Surfers

This year was a good year to break in a new club. For the first year ever, St. Anthony has had a Surf team. Totally awesome! That goes for these surf dudes! During the Island Snow Surf Meet at Kahului Harbor in December, they just "shred" on those tubular waves! These guys deserve a lot of credit. They take surfing seriously and also have a lot of fun because its a hobby they try to enjoy every weekend at Ho'okipa. Aloha to Seniors Ben Bland, Akihito Kashi, Mike Crowe, and Glen Theilk and Good Luck next year to the underclassmen!

Front row L-R: Bard Peterson, Akihito Kashi, Craig Drinkward, Brent Bland, Ian Boyd, Glenn Theild, Mike Crowe, Joe Twarowski. Back row: Team Capt., Ben Bland.

St. Anthony 1986 Was . . .

... A Year Of Many Faces ...

... A Year To Learn ...

... A Year To Grow ...

... A Year

... A Year To Play ...

... A Year To Say Goodbye To Old Friends ...

Nine special Seniors have achieved a special honor. They have been in attendance at St. Anthony since Kindergarten. Over the past thirteen years, they have seen many changes in our St. Anthony family as well as our community. They have seen many of their fellow classmates come and go, but these nine have remained a part of our St. Anthony family the longest. Good luck to these special members of the Class of 1986.

... A Great Year ...

As the sands of time wash away from the shore and back to the sea, so do the memories of the year gone by. They drift away and always will be remembered by all. Memories, reminders of yesterday, hopes of today and dreams of tomorrow.

Each grain of sand is different. So will each memory be. Laughter, hope, sadness, excitement, disappointment, happiness all await to be reunited at sometime by someone in the future. To be talked about, shared, and cherished. They cannot be relived again in their exact pattern, but may be felt deeply.

In the future, these memories will be reunited. It may not be on the same shore, but they will be gathered together again and the time spent well, until it is time again to move on, which for us is life. As do the sands of time ...

Love & miss you,

Dear Brent, Bechu you've been such a pain to me! Nah you know I only joking. Like I said to Chriss, sometimes you've been a dick-less wonder, but some of the time your great!
I have really enjoyed being to school with you.
ever the past two years
I feel that I've known you for a long time. Its been kinda weird at parties

but, other than that, it was the greatest parties I've ever been
to. (I think). So, how did you like this school year? It was fun for me. Are you coming back next year? Hope so, because the class will be boring with out "Brant Blandas" big mouth. you make the 8th grade class what it is today! See ya,
